

FREUD CONFERENCE 2003

Approaches To Madness

Saturday, 3rd May, CTC Centre, 278 Victoria Parade, East Melbourne

- 8.30 Registration & coffee
- 9.00 Welcome: Anne Kantor
Opening: Professor Sally Walker,
Vice Chancellor, Deakin University
- 9.10–10.40 Chair: Christine Hill
Incorporating an invasive object
Professor Paul Williams (UK)
- 10.40 Morning tea
- 11.00–12.30 Chair: Douglas Kirsner
Not far from the maddening crowd: Freud and the listening cure in the 20th Century
Assoc. Professor Joy Damousi (Melbourne)
- 12.30–2.00 Lunch
- 2.00–3.45 Chair: Eve Steel
Early, middle and late stages in the analysis of a borderline psychotic patient
Professor Paul Williams
- 3.45 Break
- 4.00–4.30 Open discussion with both speakers

Organized by representatives of: Australian Association of Group Psychotherapists, Australian Psychoanalytical Society, Victorian Association of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapists (for the Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy Association of Australia) and Deakin University

Conference Administrator: Marcia Hocking